

2011 is the sesquicentennial of the beginning of the American Civil War, the bloodiest conflict on United States soil. It continues to influence the lives of Americans even today.

19th Century Masterfile is an essential tool for any historian seeking a comprehensive search of primary sources. We've collected and enhance 19th-century scholarly indexes to periodicals, monographs, newspapers and government documents and brought them all into a single, online research tool. These citations are then linked to millions of full text documents. It is the first stop for research of the period.

There are few things more frustrating to a scholar than finding that you have missed an important piece of primary source material after your research is published. 19th Century Masterfile is designed to help prevent that.

While there's no dearth of scholarship written about the Civil War, finding materials that reveal the undiscovered experiences of contemporaries, in their own words, remains a considerable challenge.

Nineteenth Century Masterfile™

AN INVALUABLE RESOURCE FOR CIVIL WAR STUDIES

How many undiscovered citations are you missing?

A search on Civil War topics in 19th Century Masterfile, produces thousands of periodical articles, newspaper articles and documents.

Andrew Jackson	621	Jefferson Davis	1412
Antietam	92	John Mosby	67
Blacks as soldiers	932	Manassas, battle	150
Bull Run	120	Prisoners of war	531
Chattanooga	217	Robert E. Lee	1036
Chickamauga	71	Sanitary Commission	238
Civil War	10,852	Shiloh, battle	89
Emancipation + slaves	394	Stonewall Jackson	144
Espionage / spies	205	Ulysses S. Grant	2459
Fort Pillow	96	Vicksburg, battle	316
Gettysburg, battle	585	Wounded	227

Examples of 19th Century Masterfile discoveries:

"Females in the Army: A young woman wearing soldier's apparel"

The Western Sun-- July 1863

"Hanging of Mosby's men in 1864."

Southern Historical Society Papers--1896

"Stonewall Jackson is reported to be moving towards Gettysburg,"

The Stars and Stripes and Old Post Union--September 11, 1862

"Limbs, Ventilating apparatus for the wounded, Patent Number 39,453"

Index of Patents from the United States Patent Office--1790 to 1873.

"The Fair in Aid of Colored Soldiers. The Ladies' Sanitary Commission"

The Liberator-- November 18, 1864